Fifth Sunday of Epiphany

"He has told you, O mortal,
what is good, and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?"

Micah 6:8

Lighting of the Candle of Peace, Hope, & Justice

Penny Clarke

One: ...The light shines in the darkness.

All: We stand in this light, unshaken, knowing that the darkness has never overcome the light.

One: Let us recommit ourselves to walking in Jesus' ways of justice.

All: Empower us, Jesus, to boldly use the freedom and power given to us to resist evil, injustice, and oppression in whatever forms they present themselves.

*Opening Hymn

"A Mighty Fortress is Our God"

Baptism of Edward Binyah Kesselly II

First Congregational Response: With God's help we will proclaim the good news and live according to the example of Christ. We will surround Edward with a community of love and forgiveness, that he may grow in his service to others. We will pray for him, that he may be a true disciple who walks in the way that leads to life.

Second Congregational Response: We give thanks for all that God has already given you and we welcome you in Christian love. As members together with you in the body of Christ and in this congregation of The United Methodist Church, we renew our covenant faithfully to participate in the ministries of the Church by our prayers, our presence, our gifts, our service and our witness, that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ.

Sung Response: "Child of God" (Mark Miller)

No matter what people say; say, or think about me,
I am a child, I am a child of God.

No matter what people say; say, or think about you,
You are a child, you are a child of God.

And there is no thing, or no one

Who can separate; they can't separate you from the truth that you're someone;
You are family! You are meant to be a child, a child of God!
